Rebel Creek Racecourses

Explore Canada's Premier Horse Racing Venues

Rebel Creek is proud to operate a national network of racecourses, each offering a distinct and unforgettable experience for fans of Canadian horse racing. From Ontario to the Yukon, our tracks deliver world-class racing, breathtaking settings, and authentic regional culture. Whether you're a lifelong racing enthusiast, an owner or trainer, or a first-time visitor, Rebel Creek offers something for everyone.

Designed with racing excellence in mind, each venue features a unique track layout, high-quality racing surfaces, and modern facilities. From turf to dirt, boutique venues to flagship tracks, Rebel Creek represents the future of Canadian horse racing. Browse our full list of racecourses below and discover why race day at Rebel Creek is unlike any other.

Rebel Creek Downs

Ontario

Rebel Creek Downs is the cornerstone of our racing network and a flagship destination for thoroughbred racing in Ontario. The expansive 1.4-mile turf track, with its wide bends and extended home straight, is built for drama, stamina, and bold finishes. It attracts some of the most competitive fields in the country, drawing top-tier jockeys, trainers, and horses year-round.

This venue plays host to The Northern Cup, Rebel Creek's headline event, and is known for its electric atmosphere on race day. Beyond the track, Rebel Creek Downs offers exceptional amenities — from luxury corporate boxes to vibrant family zones — ensuring a premium experience for every guest. The seamless blend of heritage and innovation makes this venue a must-visit for Canadian racing fans.

- Turf track (1.4 miles)
- Grandstand with full course views
- Hospitality suites and corporate boxes
- Family enclosure with shaded seating
- Food courts and licensed bars
- Children's play area
- Free parking
- Accessible seating and facilities
- Betting windows and ATMs
- Live music on major race days

Rebel Creek West

Rebel Creek West brings the raw power and speed of dirt racing to life in the heart of Alberta. This track is famed for its tight corners and fast, hard surface, creating edge-of-your-seat sprint racing that rewards brave tactics and skilled riding. It's the go-to track for thrilling finishes and action-packed evenings.

The venue truly shines at night. Floodlights cast a glow over the dust as the Sunset Stakes takes centre stage, combining racing with live entertainment, DJs, and gourmet food trucks. Whether you're in the rooftop bar or standing rail-side with a cold drink, Rebel Creek West delivers a high-energy, unforgettable experience for every racegoer.

Amenities

- Dirt track (1 mile)
- Floodlit course for night racing
- Rooftop terrace with views
- Live music stage
- Food trucks and mobile vendors
- Wheelchair-accessible facilities
- Ample on-site parking
- Betting kiosks and mobile integration
- Shuttle from downtown Calgary

Rebel Creek Central

Manitoba

Located in the heart of the prairies, Rebel Creek Central is a traditional flat racing venue that champions heritage and community. With its mile-long oval turf track and generous layout, it's a favourite among jockeys for its fairness and rhythm. Race fans are drawn to the intimate viewing experience and laid-back, welcoming atmosphere.

The Prairie Mile is the course's standout event, offering a rich purse and a proud regional following. Designed with accessibility and comfort in mind, Rebel Creek Central is perfect for families, long-time punters, and those looking for an authentic race day that puts the horses at the centre of it all.

- Flat turf track (1 mile)
- Covered tiered seating
- Picnic areas and BBQ pits
- Paddock viewing zone
- Family-friendly pricing
- Kids' activity zones
- Community discounts

- Free parking
- ATMs and betting windows

Rebel Creek North

Saskatchewan

Rebel Creek North embodies the spirit of rural racing. Set amidst rolling prairie fields, this seasonal racecourse comes alive during the warmer months with colourful crowds, community pride, and the beloved Harvest Cup Festival.

Though smaller in scale, it punches well above its weight in atmosphere and hospitality. The shorter oval turf track makes for fast-paced, up-close racing, while the festival-style layout, artisan markets, and relaxed vibe make it a true gem in Canada's racing calendar.

Amenities

- Short turf oval
- Covered bleachers
- Festival food vendors
- VIP paddock tent
- Pet-friendly zones
- Free field parking
- Accessible portable toilets
- Betting kiosks
- Artisan market stalls

Rebel Creek East

Quebec

Just a short drive from Montreal, Rebel Creek East is where racing meets refinement. With a hybrid turf and synthetic track, it offers one of the most technically demanding layouts in the country. The venue is popular with both Canadian and northeastern U.S. stables, adding a rich international flavour to race day.

Bilingual service, boutique hospitality, and the glamorous St. Laurent Classic bring together the elegance of European race culture with the intensity of North American competition. Whether you're there for the racing or the experience, Rebel Creek East delivers both in style.

- Turf/synthetic hybrid track
- Bilingual guest services
- Bistro-style food vendors
- Champagne tent

- VIP skyline lounge
- Betting lounge with live data
- Parking and train access from Montreal
- Art displays and fan zones

Rebel Creek Valley

British Columbia

Set within the wine-rich interior of British Columbia, Rebel Creek Valley offers a boutique race day experience in a vineyard setting. This compact turf track is designed for fast, tight racing and delivers the perfect mix of sport and serenity.

The signature event, Vintner's Dash Weekend, blends exciting thoroughbred action with curated wine tastings, acoustic music, and local artisan stalls. With sunset views and vineyard picnic areas, this is Canadian racing at its most relaxed and refined.

Amenities

- Compact turf track (7 furlongs)
- Vineyard-style picnic spots
- Sunset viewing decks
- Winery food pairings
- Acoustic stage
- Hotel shuttles
- Lawn and general admission access

Rebel Creek Ridge

Nova Scotia

Overlooking the Atlantic, Rebel Creek Ridge offers a uniquely coastal racing experience in Nova Scotia. The natural elevation and sea breezes add a dynamic challenge to the turf track, creating unpredictable and thrilling race outcomes.

It's a venue steeped in local flavour, with maritime food vendors, folk music, and a loyal community of fans. The Atlantic Sprint Series is the course's annual highlight, showcasing the region's best horses in front of a spirited, seaside crowd.

- Natural turf track with elevation
- Bleacher and hillside seating
- Seafood vendors and local fare
- Ocean-view VIP lounge
- Maritime live music
- Family admission specials

- Limited RV parking
- Community betting facilities

Rebel Creek Frontier

Yukon

Rebel Creek Frontier stands alone — quite literally — as Canada's northernmost racecourse. Located in the Yukon, it delivers a rugged, unforgettable race day experience with its half-mile dirt track and wide-open northern skies.

Operating only in the short summer season, the venue's Northern Lights Stakes is a fan-favourite, often run under the surreal glow of dusk. This course channels the pioneering spirit of old-school racing with modern hospitality touches. Expect bonfires, music, community connection — and horses ready to race, no matter the latitude.

Amenities

- Half-mile dirt track
- Timber bleachers
- Bonfire circle & acoustic acts
- Camp-style concessions
- Horse meet-and-greet areas
- Field parking
- Western-themed family zones
- Solar-powered betting terminals

Guides

Plan Your Race Day Like a Pro

Your Complete Guide to Visiting Rebel Creek Racecourses

Whether it's your first race day or your fiftieth, our guides are here to help you make the most of every meet. From what to wear to how to bet, we've got you covered.

📚 Browse Our Guides

Each guide below can be expanded to read in full — or browsed as needed.

What to Expect on Race Day

Heading to the track for the first time? Here's what a typical day looks like and how to enjoy it from start to finish.

Before the First Race

Gates open about two hours before post time. That's your chance to explore the grounds, grab a race program, maybe even get a snack before the action starts. You can also head to the paddock to see the horses up close before they race — a fan favourite.

Understanding the Program

Every Rebel Creek track offers race programs both in print and online. They include horse names, jockeys, form guides, odds, and tips. If you've never used one before, don't worry staff and stewards are there to help.

Atmosphere Beyond the Racing

Our larger meets often include food trucks, live music, and family zones. Many guests stay well after the final race to enjoy everything the venue has to offer.

What to Wear to the Races in Canada

Dress codes vary by venue — but style never goes out of fashion.

Smart Casual is a Safe Bet

In general admission and lawn seating, comfort is key. Think breathable layers, closed-toe shoes, and weather-ready outfits. Sundresses, chinos, polos, and button-ups are perfect.

Hospitality Boxes & VIP Areas

If you've booked a suite or special package, we encourage traditional racewear. Jackets, dresses, smart shoes, and optional hats or fascinators fit right in.

Dress for the Weather

From coastal breezes in Nova Scotia to mid-summer heat in Alberta, conditions vary. Sunglasses, sunscreen, and a hat are often your best accessories.

Beginner's Guide to Betting on Horse Racing

Placing a bet is easy — and fun — when you know the basics.

Start Simple

- Win Horse must finish 1st
- Place Horse must finish 1st or 2nd
- Show Horse must finish in the top 3
- Exacta Pick the first two finishers in order
- Trifecta Pick the first three finishers in exact order

Where to Bet

- Trackside kiosks are staffed and ready to assist
- Mobile betting apps are available at most venues
- All odds are live and displayed on digital boards and in programs

How Odds Work

Favourites have lower odds (smaller payout), long shots have higher odds (larger payout). It's easy to get the hang of — and most importantly, you can start small.

Getting to Rebel Creek Venues

Every course is accessible, but here's what to expect in terms of travel and logistics.

Parking

Free parking is available at every Rebel Creek racecourse. Arrive early on feature days like The Northern Cup to avoid queues.

Shuttles & Drop-Off Zones

During large festivals, we operate free shuttles from nearby transit hubs. Ride share and taxi drop-offs are always clearly marked near the front entrance.

Accessibility

Every venue includes accessible parking, ramps, viewing decks, and restrooms. Contact us in advance if you have specific mobility needs — we're happy to assist.

Family-Friendly Race Days

Horse racing is for all ages — especially at Rebel Creek.

What We Offer Families

- Pony rides and petting zoos
- Face painting and craft tents
- Family picnic zones with shaded seating
- Children under 12 enter free at most events

Tips for a Great Day

Bring sunscreen, hats, and maybe a change of clothes for younger kids. Family maps and activity schedules are available at the gate — or online before your visit.

Best Meets for Families

Look for symbols on our event calendar showing which race days include kids' zones and family extras.

FAQ's

Everything You Need to Know Before Your Day at the Races

Whether you're planning your first visit or looking for practical details about race day, betting, or family options, our FAQ covers it all — from parking to paddock access.

Getting to the Track

Is parking available at all racecourses?

Yes. Every Rebel Creek venue offers free on-site parking. Some festivals or meets may offer reserved or accessible spots for guests with specific needs.

Do you offer shuttle services?

Shuttles operate for select major meets and festivals. Check the relevant racecourse page or event preview closer to the date for details.

Are the racecourses accessible for guests with disabilities?

Yes. We provide accessible parking, ramps, viewing platforms, and washrooms at all venues. Please reach out ahead of your visit if you need assistance or priority access.

Race Day Experience

What time should I arrive?

Gates generally open around two hours before the first race. We recommend arriving early to explore the grounds, view the paddock, and grab a race program.

Can I bring my own food or drinks?

Policies vary slightly by venue. In general, small snacks and sealed water bottles are allowed in general admission areas. Full food vendors are available on-site.

Is betting available at Rebel Creek tracks?

Yes. Each venue offers staffed betting kiosks and mobile betting options. Our staff are happy to help first-time bettors get started.

Can I bring a dog or pet?

Only certified service animals are permitted in most public areas. Some festival-style events may offer designated pet-friendly zones, which will be noted on the event page.

I've never placed a bet — can someone help me?

Yes. Each Rebel Creek venue features "First-Time Bettor" stations or signage near the betting areas. You can also review our Beginner's Guide to Betting online.

What types of bets can I place?

We support Win, Place, Show, Exacta, Trifecta, and more. Full betting guides are available on-site or online.

Can I bet online while at the track?

Yes. Most of our venues offer mobile-friendly betting access and free Wi-Fi in designated areas.

Family & Groups

Are there activities for kids?

Yes. Many of our seasonal race days include kid-focused programming like pony rides, petting zoos, face painting, and family picnic areas.

Can I bring a stroller?

Absolutely. Our venues are stroller-friendly with flat walkways and plenty of shaded rest areas.

Do you offer corporate hospitality or group spaces?

While Rebel Creek does not manage bookings directly, many venues offer private boxes or group hosting options. Please contact the venue directly for details.

Other Common Questions

What happens if it rains?

Most Rebel Creek meets go ahead rain or shine. If conditions become unsafe, changes or cancellations will be announced via our site and social media.

Do you issue refunds for cancelled events?

As Rebel Creek does not manage ticketing, refund or exchange policies are handled by the venue or third-party ticket provider (if applicable).

Can I meet the horses or jockeys?

Some of our events include paddock access or behind-the-scenes experiences. Check the event description on the racecourse or festival page.
